ENSEMBLE LAUDE

Ensemble Laude, directed by Elizabeth MacIsaac, is an auditioned choir formed of women of all ages dedicated to excellent performance of Mediæval and Early Music, complemented by related multicultural repertoire and contemporary composition. The choir is supported by the Ensemble Laude Choral Society, a non profit organization whose mandate is to ensure administrative and financial backing for its artistic and charitable ambitions. Several concerts are performed each year, in Victoria and Southern Vancouver Island.

Concerts are usually by donation as we wish to welcome everyone to our performances. If you wish to support us further, please check below.
